White Horses Walk 2012

John Jones, lead singer of award-winning Oysterband, has been an avid walker for many years. "Rushing from gig to gig, crowded motorways, staring out of tour bus windows at inviting hills rolling by just made me think: walking 20 miles, setting up in a pub, church, canalside…anywhere…was worth trying as a much-needed alternative. It caught people's imagination..."

2012 will be the fourth year of walking tours for John Jones and the Reluctant Ramblers, and this year's route takes us from south Oxfordshire to Wiltshire along the Ridgeway and the White Horses Trail. As well as coming to hear the music, you are all welcome to join in with the walking – whether just for a section or two, or for the full six days:

16th July – Goring to Nettlebed
17th July – Goring to Uffington
18th July – Uffington to Avebury
19th July – Avebury to Pewsey
20th July – Pewsey to Devizes
21st July – Devizes to Westbury
